Man Captured in Tenderloin Is Held

Frank Folan, of 1502 Swain street was arrested last night at Franklin and Callowhill streets by Patrolman Myers, of the vice squad, after he and a companion had attacked an old man, Henry Clark, of 5420 Summer street, and robbed and beaten him, according to the police. Folan's companion got away after Myers had fired several shots at both of the men.

Magistrate Watson held Folan for court. Clarke was so badly beaten that he was sent to a hospital for treatment. He said he did not recollect much about the attack and that he had lost some money and his keys in the struggle.

If there is a more extensive or better assortment of shirts at $2.00 in Philadelphia, we are not aware of it.
